

Terri Crain Goodman

After graduating from Sycamore High School in 1982, Terri earned degrees in Vocal Music and Music Education from N. I.U. and taught K-12 general and choral music and directed theatre in the Mt. Morris, Oregon and Sycamore school districts for 26 years. In addition to teaching music in the schools, she has maintained a private voice studio as well as directed, music directed, produced and been seen on stage in many theatre roles including Fanny Brice, Mama Rose, Marion Paroo, Annie Oakley and Miss Hannigan. She has worked with theatre groups in Naperville, Wheaton, Freeport, Dixon and Sycamore and was honored in 2014 to be a SCOTY Award recipient from Stage Coach Players in DeKalb. She has been a member of the Sycamore Pumpkin Festival Committee since 2015 and is the current Pumpkin Parade Chair. She is married to Ken Goodman, SHS band director, and they have a 12-year-old daughter, Alise.